of persons in the United States who are of Byelorussian origin. He stated that the BAA has no formal dramatic group. According to Dr. TUMASH, the BAA has over the past several years produced at very infrequent intervals small plays or shows in commemoration of some Byelorussian holiday or church holy day. Generally, Mr. HIPOLIT POLONIEWICZ, 174 Clinton Street, Manhattan, New York City, has been the leader and more or less the organizer of these dramatic shows. Dr. TUMASH stated that he could not recall when the BAA last put on a show due to the infrequency of these shows. Dr. TUMASH advised that the persons who take part in these shows are members of the BAA, but he could not recall the names of these persons.

On November 29, 1955, Mr. HIPOLIT POLONIEWICZ, 174 Clinton Street, Manhattan, New York City, was interviewed by SA PAUL F. GARETTY and he furnished the following information.

He is a member of the BAA, although he has been very inactive during the past two years. He stated that the BAA has no dramatic group, although on special holidays or church holy days shows have been put on by members of the BAA. He stated that the BAA also has had a chorus, but the chorus, like the dramatic shows, generally originates at a meeting of the BAA with a member making a suggestion that a group be formed to sing or a group be organized to put on a show. Mr. POLONIEWICZ stated that if enough members show an interest in taking part in such an affair, then rehearsals take place and their plans are carried out. Mr. POLONIEWICZ mentioned six persons whom he could recall as having taken part in BAA shows, but none had the subject's name.

Mr. POLONIEWICZ suggested that Mr. KONSTANTY KHEMLAK, 118 South 3rd Street, Brooklyn, New York, be interviewed because he is very active in the BAA and would know the members of the BAA who have been active in dramatics or in the chorus.
